Art mainstay Gremillion & Co. recently added to its collection of galleries in Houston and Austin, opening its doors to the Dallas audience. To celebrate the new cool-kid digs at 2251 Vantage St., gallery owner Ron Gremillion hosted a cocktail reception that capped off a day packed with creative scenes--the Dallas Art Dealers Association's Fall Gallery Walk. Crowding Gremillion's industrial chic space, art aficionados mulled over intrepid pieces while mingling with a host of artists in attendance. The inaugural exhibit featured must-see material from national and international artists represented by the gallery over the past 30 years.
